Meeting of Town Fathers Oddfellows' Anniversary

The regular meeting of the Blairmore council was held last night, when very little business was transacted.

A communication was received from Judge E. P. McNeill regarding the tax enforcement returns, the approval of which he found necessary to adjourn until a sitting of the court of confirmation on May 30th.

The Blairmore Tennis Club asked permission to hold their annual meeting in the town hall on Saturday, April 29th. The request was not granted, and the secretary was asked to enforce a resolution passed last year to the effect that the town hall be used for municipal and school district purposes only.

A table of estimates for School District 628 for the year 1916-1917 was submitted and considered, and on motion the secretary was asked to write to the board, requesting them to cut down their estimates to a minimum. The estimates required the sum of $40,500 for school purposes for the year.

W. A. Beebe made an offer of six lots on Victoria Street east as a park site, if the town would assume the taxes on ten lots amounting to $40,000. Lots are well located and would be valuable asset to the town. The subject was left with a committee to consider and report at next meeting.

Duth-Evans—That J. E. Gillis be retained by the Town of Blairmore for the purpose of advising secretary-treasurer regarding procedure necessary for the completion of the tax enforcement returns of the Town of Blairmore. That said J. E. Gillis be advised accordingly, and that he be instructed to take all necessary steps to have said tax enforcement returns confirmed at the earliest possible date. Carried.

A number of small accounts were duly passed.

Russian troops are now landing on the coast of France.

Little Patriot!

All this talk of hyphenated citizenship has evidently had its effect upon a San Francisco youngster, American born, who recently rebelled fiercely when his Italian father whipped him for some misdeemeanor.

"But, Tommaso, your father has a right to whip you when you are bad," someone of the family said.

Tommaso's eyes flashed. "I am a citizen of the United States," he declared. "Do you think I am going to let any foreigner lick me?"—Argonaut.

The following shipment has been sent to Calgary:

22 suits pyjamas
5 surgical shirts
2 pairs pyjama bottoms
5 pairs tallied bandages
4 pairs socks
66 surgical pads
120 compresses
1 day shirt
10 bed pads

75 roller bandages
2 pairs stockings
120 colored handkerchiefs
20 wash cloths
4 triangular bandages
22 slings.

These four items were made by the children's Friday class.

As a cash donation, we were able to send one hundred dollars to the central fund this month and five dollars to the Ogden Home.

We have been asked to correct a wrong impression which has often gained ground in the annals of the society. Our workers give their time and labor GRATIS. We pay no salaries and any money received is spent for supplies or sent direct to our fund.

The secretary acknowledges with thanks a cash donation of one dollar from Mrs. James Patterson.

MCLEAREN LUMBER CO.

The plant of the Dominion Harvester Company, at Medicine Hat, used as a munitions factory, was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday last, the loss being estimated at $70,000.

TEN YEARS AGO

(From The Blairmore Times, 1906)
February 24, 1906.—The International Coal & Coke Co. mines had an output of 87,500 tons of coal during 1905, and this means 23,300 tons added to the company's stock, which produced 23,200 tons of coke. The company paid out during the year for mine operation $227,029 in cash, besides expending $227,029 in adding to their plant. The Colfman mine was employing 325 men, besides a number engaged in getting out timber and other contracts.

A. B. Tritts and R. W. Woods, of Fernie, chartered by A. Mutz, were doing The Pass town this week.

Little Dorothy Graham gave a birthday party the first of the week to her many little friends and playmates in Colfman.

W. H. Cushing, minister of public works was in Frank to close the contract for the government for the building of the wagon road across the slide.

A party of Salvation Armyists visited Coleman last week. They donated $5 of the money they collected to the funds of the Union hospital.

It is again rumored that the machinery is ordered for a plant for the Frank mine of 2,000 tons capacity. As a coincident, we also noticed practically this same announcement in the Frank Sentinel of November 8, 1901.

A very pretty wedding took place at Hillcrest on Tuesday, February 20th, by which Miss Ethel Hood, eldest daughter of A. Hood, of that place, became the bride of J. McPhail, of Bellevue. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, the bride being attended by her cousin, Miss Belle Moran, of Lethbridge, while Mr. T. Phillips acted as best man for the groom. The happy couple left on the evening express for Calgary and other points on their wedding trip. The bride is well known, where she has a very large number of relatives living principally grown from childhood to womanhood here in The Pass. The groom is also well known, having been connected with the various Pass mines in his capacity as engineer ever since the first opening up of the mines.

At last Miss Rossette is married, and the American journals will now be able to devote more space to Castro, of Venezuela, and his bluff in Europe.

The Blairmore hotel, which was lately destroyed by fire, is to be rebuilt at once, and a much finer building will replace the one destroyed. E. Morino has secured the contract for the excavating and stonework for the basement.

March 10.—Coke Sedgwick is now serving liquid refreshments at the Cosmopolitan.

Frank Killen was taken to the Macleod hospital for medical treatment on Monday.

C. F. Harris of Macleod, has taken over the management of the Macleod Gazette, and from now on we may expect a very readable sheet.

March 17.—The banana crop of The Pass was slightly damaged by frost this week.

Thursday the first legislative assembly of Alberta was opened in Edmonton.

Yesterday T. Appleby received the sad intelligence that his mother had died on Friday, March 9, at her home in Belleville, Ontario. Mrs. Appleby was 87 years of age.

An exchange says that a wagon-maker who has been dull for years picked up a hub and spokes, and that a blind carpenter on the same day picked up a plane and saws; and that a deaf farmer went out with a dog and heard a forty-ton elephant insert his nose in a grante and die. Yes, and some more in the woods saw the tree bark. Another man was astonished to see it done, and he passed along the news.

American Legion

The American Legion, the great Canadian army will be a pledge to America to the world's demand for justice.

This statement by Wm. T. Gorman, one of the American-born residents of Canada are raising four battalions—a brigade—to go with the Canadian army to fight the Hun. Nearly 6,000 men will join a body with the Legion about eight per cent of the total of Wellington's victorious army at Waterloo! Besides these there are thousands more young Americans who have joined Canadian units from one end of Canada to the other. It is safe to assume that there are no less than 10,000 American-born men bearing Canadian colors today.

Some of our news correspondents with the foreign press are now reporting to the south, but we are still informed that the number of American-born men in the Canadian army is increasing daily.

Mr. J. C. Thomas returned from England yesterday. He will speak at a meeting of the Canadian Legion on Saturday, April 1st, at 8 p.m., at the hall of the Legion, 1011 1/2 Main Street, and the Gold fellowship will follow.

A large number of local Oddfellow journeys to Blairmore on Sunday to attend the joint anniversary service.

The school closed on Thursday of last week for the Easter holidays. Principal Kelly attended the teachers' convention and returns this week end.

Word was received in Bellevue this week of the death of John McLeod, which occurred at Los Angeles, California. Mr. McLeod left Bellevue about three weeks ago for California, where he expected to find relief for his complaint, asthma.

Quite an interesting game of baseball took place on Good Friday afternoon between a team from the 192nd and the Bellevue Has Beens.

The ground was anything but good, but nevertheless the boys pulled off a good game. R. Levitt acted as referee. The soldiers came out winners by a score of 2 to 1. The Has Beens are determined to win next time.

Spends His Dollars In His Home Town

I've bought goods at Glasgow, Belfast and Cork,

London and Liverpool, and then in New York,

I've purchased in Paris, and also in Rome,

I've said to you truly, There's no place like home.

I've been in Chicago, I'm sorry to say,

When the boxes were opened, I stood there alone,

And said to myself, goods are better at home.

The stove that I sent had only three legs,

What's the use of a stove if it hasn't its pegs?

When I looked in the oven it was cracked to the dome

And I wished to Old Mike I had bought it at home.

I'm now filled up with this buying away,

I'll buy where I sell my good butter and hay,

If the Lord will forgive me, no more will I roam,

Hereafter I'll spend my dollars at home.

The Right Spirit

We cannot all be patriots in the sense of appearing as such in public; but those of us to whom the privilege of platform speaking, or even of persuasion, is denied can by force of example declare ourselves. This form of patriotism is denied to no man. In exercising it we are serving God and performing a duty owing both to ourselves and to the country. We are also encouraging emulation. How far, or even in what direction, that may reach none of us can foretell. To the right-thinking man, to the true patriot, it is enough to know that within his power he is doing all that may be done. The extent of his personal influence will not troubleshoots—no patriotic knowledge that he is bending all his best efforts to accomplish something useful in life will inspire him.

It is this spirit that paramount to all else without exception, we are specially called upon at this juncture to exercise. The man who fails is in a minor sense almost as much a traitor to his country as the man who is false to his place of birth or to the land of his adoption. It is in this spirit—the right spirit—that we are summoned to the fight that the Empire is waging for the liberty of all people, the freedom of every nation, and the right observance of treaties and international engagements. By being activated in this way we will not short in the responsibilities entailed by citizenship. It is this spirit that the campaign for production and thrift has been launched to develop and encourage.

No man or woman is justified in ignoring the call. He or she who recognizes it to the full by such useful production as lies within his power is fulfilling a God-given duty. He who is guilty of waste, of wilful extravagance, of wanton self-indulgence, places himself beyond the pale of the patriot, beyond the pale of Christian duty. This is a truth that one and all need to recognize and that in recognizing will bring into activity the right spirit. In producing and in saving, in practicing a wise economy, we may not be doing as much as the soldier in the trenches, who is exercising that divine quality of making his life for his friends as well as for himself, but we are becoming appreciative of the existing order of affairs. And this is possible to every man, be he lawyer, doctor, merchant, farmer or common laborer.

Cowley Happenings

Mrs. Easterbrook has purchased a player piano.

Mrs. McDonald was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. M. Bowerman made a trip to town on Tuesday.

We are glad to know that Mrs. J. G. Swinney, who had been ill for some time, is around again.

Mrs. T. Burles and children, who had been visiting her parents in Glencoe, Ontario, have returned home.

Mrs. Martin, a former resident of Cowley, who is teaching at Coleman, was the guest of Mrs. D. R. McIvor for the Easter holidays.

The weather continues fine for farming, and the farmers are only seen in town when necessity demands a flying business trip there.

Clarence Gilmore, who is working for Mr. Bowerman, had the misfortune of getting his ankle sprained a few days ago, and is obliged to wear crutches.

The Women's Institute is still doing business, gathering money and supplies for the Red Cross, making field comforts for the soldiers, etc.

George Gow and family, who have resided here for several years, are moving to Rosebud, Alta. They will be greatly missed by their many friends and acquaintances. Mr. Gow is a member of the U.F.A., while Mrs. Gow is an active member of the Women's Institute.

A granary and two hundred bushels of seed grain belonging to Mrs. Harvey Bouthillier were destroyed by fire of mysterious origin on Monday. It was about noon that a straw stack close by seemed suddenly to light to flames, and in a few minutes the granary and wheat were all ablaze and nothing could be done to save them.

Principal Fred Smith is attending the teachers' convention at Edmonton, thus giving his pupils a week's holiday; but they are anxious for his return, that they may resume their work. This shows the high esteem in which Mr. Smith is held by his pupils. While the larger children are having a holiday, Miss Kippen, teacher of the junior room, is keeping the little ones right on the job, and they are advancing nicely under her careful management.

A special Easter service was held in the Presbyterian church on Easter Sunday, when an sermon was delivered by Rev. W. M. Chalmers to a large congregation. The preacher took as his text the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians. The music was very good, including a solo entitled "My Redeemer," by Miss R. A. Swinney, in her active member of the Women's Institute.

This shows the high esteem in which Mr. Smith is held by his pupils. While the larger children are having a holiday, Miss Kippen, teacher of the junior room, is keeping the little ones right on the job, and they are advancing nicely under her careful management.

A special Easter service was held in the Presbyterian church on Easter Sunday, when an sermon was delivered by Rev. W. M. Chalmers to a large congregation. The preacher took as his text the 15th chapter of 1st Corinthians. The music was very good, including a solo entitled "My Redeemer," by Miss R. A. Swinney, in her active member of the Women's Institute.

A granary and two hundred bushels of seed grain belonging to Mrs. Harvey Bouthillier were destroyed by fire of mysterious origin on Monday. It was about noon that a straw stack close by seemed suddenly to light to flames, and in a few minutes the granary and wheat were all ablaze and nothing could be done to save them.

Principal Fred Smith is attending the teachers' convention at Edmonton, thus giving his pupils a week's holiday; but they are anxious for his return, that they may resume their work. Self-Education In Scouting

Concentration & Education Can Only be Obtained When Work is Done is Suited to Tastes and Ability of the Learner

The natural instinct of the infant is to develop itself by exercises which we call "Play." It has an inherent desire to accomplish the young child does not do this until overcomes difficulties to its own satisfaction.

Dr. Montessori has proved that by placing a child in its natural environment, instead of in school, in which you think it ought to do, you can educate it on a much more solid and far-reaching basis. It is only traditional custom that makes education an obligation, that makes education prove that education should be labor, and that as such it is good training for the child in discipline and application.

The natural instinct of the Scout in Scouting for boys was to break through the tradition and to show that by giving attractive pursuits to the young, one can teach them to develop themselves the essentials of character, health and handiness.

Mr. McMunn, in his recent work, "Path to Freedom in the School," has stated the traditional method thus:

"Some lunatic having evolved the idea that the most effective way to do their work properly in the same way as adults, we have made that our ideal of education ever since with a scornful smile on the part of the hand-cuffs and fetters, not of will."

It is maintained by many interested in education that concentration on the part of the student is most essential to its successful development, but is most difficult to obtain in school.

I don't know what happens in school, but I do know that my son's lack of concentration outside the school if you only give a child its own task to do in its own way.

The boy is to study the child and see what interests it. Look at a younger making sand castles on the beach, how he will go it hour after hour, and his overjoyed expression of delight, and build up his castle to his satisfaction. He concentrates the whole of his thought and the whole of his physical energy on the task, and such a whole-hearted keenness to educational ends, there is no difficulty in obtaining the concentration desired.

This is exactly what happens in the Scout movement—on a step higher than the castles in the sand—but the success is that the interest of the child, as of building his home, whatever it may be, is from his own development.

Does a school teacher get his children for knowledge of the three "R's":

The main step to success is to develop, not to repeat, the act of the department, and the same time, above all, not to hurt him. He wants to be doing things, therefore encourage him to do them in the right direction.

Let him do them in his own way. Let him make his mistakes; it is by these he gets experience.

Education must be positive, not negative, active, not passive. For example, the Scout law in each of its details says, "A Scout does—this, that or the other."

Another has come along to improve the Scout law, and not recognizing the active side of it, have changed it to the reverse, series of don'ts. "Don't do this, don't do that" is the distinguishing feature and motto of the old fashioned system of repression, and it is red in boy. It is a challenge to him to do what he likes.

Sought Knowledge lasts: unthought does not.

McMunn shows that children will not concentrate all day and every day, will seek the knowledge you ask them to, if you will let them seek it themselves in their own way.

Every boy is different in ability, temperament and mind, and yet we try to teach him all in a heap the same things. One will come out on top of another, and the others will be pawns to him. But he does not necessarily afterwards come out at the top of life.

West Danby, N.Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for stomach trouble and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have to work hard all the time, sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her a good deal of good. I keep the bottle on the shelf and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCERAUGH, West Danby, N.Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, etc., are due to fear and nervousness which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native American herbs, has for forty years proved to be a valuable tonic and invigorator of the female system. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Scout movement for offering such a large number of badges for proficiency in so many different lines. The object of this was, not that each boy should be the master of every badge, but to give each boy an opportunity to show the enormous variety of characters among boys, and to give each one his chance by selecting his badge. We do not want to encourage a boy to become a braggart, where the lucky boy who happens to be brilliant in one of the "R's" comes on top, and blushed equally good, but unfortunately not in one of the subjects which come into the school curriculum.

Strict Game Laws

Manitoba Authorities Using Every Means to Protect Wild Game

Charles Barber, chief game guardian of Manitoba, says that one of the healthiest and most gratifying features in connection with the protection of wild life is the very great sport that is being obtained, from all the good and true sportsmen of the province. The province since 1915 has been under the direction of the officials of the railway and express companies.

Further, that the good government of the province is very much alive, to the point of the most stringent and of preserving and perpetuating a good supply of all kinds of useful wild life for the benefit of the general population, as much so that during the month of September, 1915, the attorney-general's department gave notice that the protection of the welfare and justices of the peace will be work strenuously at this time with a view to making the increase which is bound to come as a result of the present conditions.

The Dominion government is doing all in its power to add to the impetus of the protection of the game, and to increase the cattlemen and that at the present time hogs are increasing in number.

The reason? It was because of the poor crops in the western prairie provinces, and the fact that the bottom has been reached and passed, and at the present time hogs are increasing in number.

The following is an extract from a letter written in the trenches by A. Deslauriers, with the 22nd French-Canadian Battalion. Mr. Deslauriers, with headquarters at Ottawa, was interviewed in Canada yesterday, recently said:

"Both hogs and cattle have greatly decreased in all the provinces. In two years, hogs have dropped off much more than cattle, but there has been a great decrease in both. I venture to say that 50 per cent. is now a great figure with reference to hogs."

"The reason?"

The new three cent stamp is proving to be a source of amusement to some people, and a cause for naughty words to others. Doubtless it is a wonderful production. There is a figure 1 on it, but it is not a one cent stamp; there is a figure 2 on it; but it is not a two cent stamp; there is not a figure 3 on it, but it is a three cent stamp. The big T on it is supposed to mean—"Taint a one?" Taint a two? Taint a three; and the little c is suggestive of the naughty words that have already been said, by those who have mistaken the three cent for a two, and then added a one to make it three.
